

VOL. 60. NO. 47

FOOT OF LIMEROCK STREET, ROCKLAND

FRED R. SPEAR
5 PARK STREET

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

SIGN OF THE BIG D Phone 305-12

WORKS, NEAR M. C. DEPOT, THOMASTON, ME.

ple who think the United States court a slow moving body people do not understand all the reasons for its condition of affairs. The court justifies the delay by the constant filing of nearly five million words of new cases each year, and nearly 8900 typewritten pages. It would make about 3300 newspaper columns and would fill nearly 56 issues of a newspaper the size of the Courier-Tribune. We haven't any notion of what it is, however, so our readers must take their medicine. The reason for the delay is that the suit brought by the State of Missouri to enjoin Illinois from emptying the Chicago drainage into the Mississippi river, is have unshaken confidence that the Republican party which is in control of affairs will shape the country's policies wisely.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
 Take LAXATIVE BROMO-QUININE Tablets
 Druggists refund the money if it fails to cure.

KEITH'S THEATRE.

The opening concerts of the Fadettes man's Orchestra at Keith's Boston theatre created a greater sensation.

WRITING A PLAY

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

And though beneath one roof-tree met
None called his fellow "Brother;"
No sign of recognition passed—
They knew not one another.
—McLandburgh Wilson, in the Critic.

ly located near the trolley line, one mile from Rockland City Postoffice; it offers an excellent opportunity for any party wanting a comfortable home for summer boarders, stock raising or other purposes. For particulars apply to

E. A. BUTLER, Agent.
Rockland, Maine.

Cures Cuts and Burns

Cures Cuts and Burns

Norway Medicine Co., Norway, Me.

Norway Medicine Co., Norway, Me.

The Courier-Gazette.

THWICE-A-WEEK

President Roosevelt has again done the right thing at exactly the proper moment, in proffering his suggestion to the two eastern powers that they get together and agree upon terms of peace. Both Japan and Russia have signified that they are entirely agreeable to the suggestion. An armistice exists between the opposing armies and it remains only for the commissioners of the two nations to get together. Doubtless this marks the end of the war, for in the general estimation it is clear that Russia will be glad to accept almost any terms Japan may have to offer. The acts of President Roosevelt is hailed by all countries with warm commendation. There is no politics in it. For instance the Democratic Brooklyn Eagle says of the President's action:

His act stands in company with the greatest acts of our greatest Presidents.

When President, Ulysses S. Grant arranged the arbitration of our claims against Great Britain and of hers against us in matters issuing from our Civil War.

When President, Abraham Lincoln emancipated the slaves that the South might be weakened in its attack on the Union, and that freedom might be brought to a race.

When President, Andrew Jackson forced Nullification to its knees.

When President, Thomas Jefferson effected with Napoleon Bonaparte, the Louisiana Purchase by the impetus of which the Pacific was made our continental western boundary.

When President, Grover Cleveland forced a settlement between England and Venezuela in a manner to vindicate and preserve the rational intentment of the Monroe Doctrine. He also vindicated national paramountcy against mobs and made Gold forever our measure of value.

Mr. Roosevelt's deed is the latest, but by no means is it ratable as the least of the great acts of American chief magistrates. If not in the interest of union, of nationality, or of expansion, or of civil war settlements, or of the Monroe doctrine, it is in the interest of even the larger and nobler considerations of humanity and of peace. It has in it the unselfishness, the benevolence and the grandeur that best the idea of the movement of God for men on the mind of a ruler obedient to the Divine mission. Great in action, great in motive, the result is in line with both. All the hopes of all the heart of all the world were with him. Those hopes have been realized. How great his joy, how great the pride of this people, how great the gratification and the gain of mankind need not be said.

The arrangements making for the Washington celebration give abundant promise of an occasion likely to become memorable. No mistake was made when the chief direction of affairs was placed with Mr. Moore. That gentleman, with his accustomed spirit of doing the thing that his hand is put to, has brought out an arrangement of program commensurate with the dignity of the day and the event it celebrates. There remains only the public interest to awaken, to the end that the affair may not lack in attendance. Of this however we have no fear. The order of exercises will be of such merit that it needs only a day of fair weather to insure a great company of men and women from all over this part of the state. In this connection we recommend to the people that they read the opening chapters of Eaton's History of Thomaston. There in narrow compass, the reading of a profitable half-hour, one gets news of the beginning of things in Knox county, the spot upon New England's main land first to be pressed by the feet of Englishmen, the event whose 200th anniversary is next month to be celebrated.

The people of the United States have the best weather-service in the world, the government spending one million five hundred dollars a year on its Weather Bureau—a larger sum than all the governments of Europe combined spend for similar service. The bureau not only gives advance tidings of the weather, but its warnings of cold waves, and storms save millions of dollars in crops every year, to say nothing of uncounted lives. And the story of how all this is accomplished is as fascinating as a Jules Verne romance. This is the subject of Gilbert H. Grosvenor's "Our Heralds of Storm and Flood" in the June Century.

The crowd of on-lookers who assist in the work of laying the asphalt paving on School street testify to the deep interest that citizens feel in public improvements. The comments appear to be all of a favorable character and the finished surface as it unfolds to view impresses the critic with a sense of its beauty and utility. Contractor Howard welcomes the severe test that his work is to receive in the heavy teaming soon to be put upon the street through the building of a brick block there, declaring with confidence that the severe test the better will his work show forth.

We think the change from vertical writing back to the old-fashioned kind will be for the benefit of Rockland's schools. Our observation of the vertical system during its ten years of trial here inclines us to the belief that it does not produce as good penmen as the method formerly in vogue.

SEARSHONT

Mrs. Alice Sherman of Appleton is at the Nevins House, Rockland, Me. Mrs. James Blair of Palatka, Fla., is in town, called by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Ranlett Ness. Mrs. Ness is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stickney of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown last week.

Messrs. Clifford Ness, Ernest Marden, Joe Dyer, Charlie Jones and Ralph Fowles attended the ball game in Belfast last Saturday.

Posters are out announcing the annual opening ball, under the management of Messrs. Knight and McCorrison at Dirigo hall, Tuesday evening, June 26. If stormy, the ball will be given Wednesday night.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

Rockland High School Graduation Takes Place Thursday Night—The Program—Some Events of Closing School Life.

The most important week of the entire school year was inaugurated Sunday evening, when the class of 1905, Rockland High school, assembled at the Universalist church and listened to the fine baccalaureate sermon of Rev. E. H. Chapin.

The graduating exercises take place in Farwell opera house next Thursday evening, when the friends of the 28 students are hoping that the seating capacity of the hall will prove equal to the demands. It is the rule in a High school graduating class for the girls to travel; Charles Robie Pyre, Jr., the year's scales exactly balance for there are 14 of each sex, who have survived the four terms of the school year. The students who took the general course, the subjects of their essays are as follows:

Idella Brown Aylward, The Ship on the Stocks; Marguerite Hay Belden, The Oil and Vinegar of Life; Vivian Belle Belding, Class Ode; Cora Belle Belding, Great Fires; Seth Ballou Carlin, Citizen Hero; Genevieve Rixia Cassens, The Old Blue Laws; Ethel Clifton, Poem—"At the Dawn"; Florence Amelia Dunton, Advantage of Travel; Charles Robie Pyre, Jr., The American Forest; Margaret A. Grant, Dressmakers of Paris; Mary Adelaide Harrington, The Power of Tact; Ralph Francis Higgins, Sir William Phillips; Walter Wood Spaulding, Class History; The Revolution; Nathan Israel, Socialism, its Causes and Aims; Sarah Alethea Israel, Strikes and their Causes; Jessie Emma Keating, An Appeal to the American Girl; Scott Farrow Kittredge, Perilous Missions; Christina Frances McNeil, Katharine of Aragon; Lucy Adams Perkins, Maine in Summer; Charles Kimball Philbrick, Ancient and Modern Athletics; Harry Silverman, The Problem of the Hour; Walter Wood Spaulding, Class History.

The college preparatory course was taken by six students—all boys. Their names, and the subjects of their essays are as follows:

Percy Haven Baker, Greek Culture in the Age of Pericles; Walter Hillman Butler, The Last of the Old Senators; Cecil Sprague Copping, Physical Culture; Albert Kinsman Gardner, The Garden of Maine; Frank Willis Knight, Luther Burbank's Achievements; Francis Eaton Simmons, Class Prophecy.

The program proper of the graduating exercises Thursday night will be as follows:

Salutatory—"The Last of the Old Senators," Mr. Butler; Essay—"The Ship on the Stocks," Miss Aylward; Oration—"Luther Burbank's Achievements," Mr. Knight; Music—Orchestra; Essay—"The Power of Tact," Miss Harrington; Class History, Mr. Spaulding; Oration—"Perilous Missions," Mr. Kittredge; Poem—"At the Dawn," Miss Clifton; Music—Orchestra; Essay—"An Appeal to the American Girl," Mr. Simmons; Class Prophecy, Mr. Simmons; Valedictory—"Greek Culture in the Age of Pericles," Mr. Baker; Presentation of Diplomas; Class Ode.

Friday evening in Kimball hall occurs the annual reception to the graduating class, tendered by the High School Alumni Association of which Edward F. Berry '76 is the president. These receptions are always of an informal nature, it being the intention of the Association to provide an evening of pleasure for those who attend, and to give the newly-fledged graduates an opportunity of meeting those who spoke their places in former years. From 8 until 8:30 there will be a reception of guests, then a short business meeting and program, followed by dancing. The committees in charge of the entertainment are as follows:

Reception Committee—Mrs. Lillian B. Mortland, '72; Mrs. Alice Philbrick, '73; Miss Georgia F. Wiggin, '95; Miss Leola Thorndike, '90; Thos. P. Hayden, '91; E. Roy Smith, '93; Decorating Committee—Emma A. Lawrence, '94; Eda A. Knowlton, '93; Isadora P. Bird, '91; Raymond S. Bird, '94; Roy L. Knowlton, '96; Refreshment Committee—Albert C. McLoon, '92; Mabel H. McLoon, '94; Monira L. Crockett, '96; Frances M. Tibbetts, '98; Richard A. Rhodes, '99.

Saturday evening the class has a banquet at the Thorndike hotel, followed by a dance. Farnham's Sextet will furnish the music. Wednesday will mark the actual finish of '95's festivities and the probable finish of the fund in the treasury. The class netted about $165 by its entertainments the past year and purposes to have a grand good time in "blowing" it. Certainly nobody begrudges the pleasure. The Monday event, to which reference was above made, will be an excursion to Little Deer Isle. Later there will probably be a buckboard ride to Crescent Beach, but by that time the students will have begun to scatter and the excursion of next Monday will probably be the final time in which all the members of the class will be united.

Let them enjoy the next seven days to the utmost.

The baccalaureate sermon, preached Sunday by Rev. E. H. Chapin, attracted a large number of high school students to the Universalist church Sunday. Mr. Chapin took for the subject of his able discourse "The Whole Armor of God." One paragraph of the sermon which is especially worthy of quoting, was as follows:

"Have faith. It is essential to every one of you that you have faith in your own selves. Have faith in your fellow men and in this great country of yours. Great souls have great power. In the city of Philadelphia when it was thought that civic righteousness was dead Mayor Weaver dared to stand by his convictions and such was the power of honesty that the evil forces did not dare to withstand him. There is too much carelessness, too much infidelity, too much palming off other people's work for our own. Do your own work in your own way. Say your own thoughts in your own way. Say what you have to say from your own souls, as if it came from Almighty God. Read everything good. Take in everything good. But let it be wrought over in your own soul. Do not depend too much upon others. Success cannot be accomplished by infidelity or by dishonesty. By faithfulness the truth will be revealed in your own souls."

The church was prettily decorated with flowers.

THE PRESIDENT'S HAND.

An identical note, the text of which by authority of the President, was made public at the White House by Secretary Loeb, has been forwarded to the governments of Russia and Japan by President Roosevelt. The following is the text of the despatch as given out:

"The President feels that the time has come when in the interest of all mankind he must endeavor to see if it is not possible to bring to an end the terrible and lamentable conflict now being waged. With both Russia and Japan the United States has inherited ties of friendship and good will. It hopes for the prosperity and welfare of each, and it feels that the progress of the world is set back by the war between these two great nations. The President accordingly urges the Russian and Japanese governments not only for their own sakes, but in the interest of the whole civilized world, to open direct negotiations for peace with each other."

"The President suggests that these peace negotiations be conducted directly and exclusively between the belligerents and in other words that the United States should act as a mediator. The President suggests that these peace negotiations be conducted directly and exclusively between the belligerents and in other words that the United States should act as a mediator. The President suggests that these peace negotiations be conducted directly and exclusively between the belligerents and in other words that the United States should act as a mediator."

"While the President does not feel that any intermediary should be called in, in respect to the peace negotiations themselves, he is entirely willing to do what he properly can for the two powers concerned. He is willing to be of aid in arranging the preliminaries to the time and place of meeting. But if even these preliminaries can be arranged directly between the two powers, or in any other way, the President will be glad, as his sole purpose is to bring about a meeting which the whole civilized world will pray may result in peace."

Formal and satisfactory replies were received to the President's note, and the question as to where the plenipotentiaries are to meet is receiving attention. London financial circles believe that Japan will demand an indemnity of $100,000,000. It is suggested that the terms of Japan will probably also include the acknowledgment of a Japanese protectorate over Korea, the total Russian evacuation of Manchuria, the handing over of certain interests on the Lianung peninsula and at Port Arthur to Japan, and the cession of the railroad from Port Arthur to Harbin. The question of the island of Sakhalin will also be raised.

SMYRNA RUGS

We have picked out two sizes of strictly All Wool Smyrna Rugs we have marked Special Prices on. We want you to come and see our rugs. We can give just as good bargains in other sizes as in the ones mentioned below.

SIZES and PRICES

26 x 54 inches for $1.48
30 x 60 inches for $1.89

At Such Prices No One Should Be Without Rugs

CARPET DEPARTMENT

FULLER & COBB

BURN COKE! BURN COKE!

Coke is worth as much as coal!
Will last as long, and
Gives as much heat.

COSTS ONLY $4.00 Per Ton

AT THE GAS HOUSE.

ROCKLAND, THOMASTON & CAMDEN STREET RAILWAY

445 MAIN STREET, ROCKLAND

Some Facts for Men WHO WEAR GOOD CLOTHES

Good Clothes must be correct in style, they must fit right, they must wear well. These three qualifications are the first thoughts given in buying our clothing. It is the kind that makes permanent friends of occasional Suit Buyers--makes them return again and again to our store, and causes them to tell their friends about us and the goods we sell. We are not satisfied with just satisfying--we go a step further--please our customers beyond their expectations.

Burpee & Lamb

NEW ENGLAND CLOTHING HOUSE

CAPT. HERBERT L. FARR.

A telegram which proved a shock to many in this city, came from Bristol, R. I., yesterday, conveying the news that Capt. Herbert L. Farr had died there that morning. Capt. Farr underwent an operation in a hospital last Friday and was rallying successfully, when there came a sudden change and he failed rapidly. Mr. Farr was born in South Thomaston, April 15, 1856, being a son of Capt. Chandler and Ann E. (Lewis) Farr of Owl's Head. In early life he went to sea, but evinced a preference for land, and for four years held a clerkship in Aroostook county. He then had charge of the carpet department successively in the stores of Simon Bros. and Fuller & Cobb, for a number of years. About 6 years ago he took command of the steamer Mercurycorn, running between Camden and New Bedford. He held this position two years, and then for one year was in the M. & M. running between Bath and Boothbay.

At the time of his death he was entering upon his second season in command of the steamer Sagamore, running between Bristol R. I. and Newport. He was a very capable steamboat man, and a man who was held in highest respect by every acquaintance. He is survived by his parents, his wife, whose maiden name was Lenora E. Rackliffe; five daughters, Mrs. Charles Montgomery of Ingraham Hill, Mrs. Walter S. Libby of Presque Isle, Elma E., Lucy F., and Julia A., two sons, Herman C. and Bently B., and four sisters Mrs. Willis Esty of Brookline, Mass., Mrs. Elmer Kinnell of Bangor, Me., Mrs. M. A. Iyer, of this city, and Mrs. Frank Smith of Ash Point. The remains arrived this morning, accompanied by Mrs. Farr and son Herman. The funeral takes place Wednesday at 2 p. m., in the Owl's Head Chapel. Deceased was a member of Rockland Lodge, A.O.U.W., in which he carried an insurance of $2000.

MRS. CAROLINE F. CROCKETT.

News was received here last week of the death of Mrs. Caroline T. (Knowlton) Crockett of Onset, Mass., which occurred last Thursday, June 8. Mrs. Crockett was born in this city 70 years ago, where she spent her early life. She was the eldest child of the late Ephraim and Mrs. Catharine (Rankin) Knowlton. Mrs. Crockett had been in ill health for some time but heart trouble was the immediate cause of her death. The news of her death was received with surprise by her relatives as they did not consider her in any danger. They have the sympathy of their friends in their bereavement. Mrs. Crockett is survived by her aged mother and two sisters, Mrs. Emerson Richards and Mrs. George Shuman all of this city. The body is to be cremated and the ashes are to be brought to this city and placed in Ashmont cemetery, where there will be funeral services at the time of their arrival.

Letter to S. C. Philbrick.

Rockland, Maine.
Dear Sir: The easiest business in this world is dry-goods; the reason is: your customers want your stuff as much as you want to sell it; they come in, you show it, and sell it. This is the whole business, except your buying the goods.

Devoe comes next. It saves money, and people like money. They like somebody else's money than their own; they like to make it more than to save it; they like to keep it perhaps as well as to make it.

Buildings run-down fast, without paint; poor paint; the same. Devoe is the means of stopping that leak; a big one. All we've got to do, to sell Devoe, is to show that a man saves money by using it.

E. D. Jewell, Corry, Pa., painted his house 5 years ago with a mixed paint; 14 gallons. Last spring he painted Devoe; 10 gallons. Saved $15 to $20.

P. W. DEVOE & CO.

Farrand, Spear & Co. sell our paint.

VETERANS ASSOCIATION.

The annual reunion of the North Knox and West Waldo Veteran Association will be held at Grange hall, Appleton, Wednesday, June 28; if stormy, the first day after. The meeting will be called to order at 1:30 o'clock.

A FREE GIFT FOR YOU

Every Reader of The Courier-Gazette to Be Given Booth's Pills.

To show what real medicine will do in curing constipation and restoring the bowels and liver to free and natural action, C. H. Pendleton will give away a three-dose package of Booth's Laxative Pills to every one calling at his store or sending by mail.

This package that is given you by C. H. Pendleton will prove there is no gripping, no straining, no discomfort, no derangement of stomach or bowels when Booth's Laxative Pills are used. They give a gentle, natural, easy movement that completely relieves the system of all waste matter. A large package of Booth's Pills costs but 25c, and they are guaranteed to cure headache, specks before the eyes, dizziness, liver blotches, pimples, constipation, and all trouble of the liver and bowels. Get the free package to-day, and you will say you never before found a medicine that did you so much good in so short a time.

A NEW WRINKLE

ROYAL SOCIETY... EMBROIDERY FLOSS

This Floss is put up in Packages with Place for making, Color card and directions. You only pay for Floss.

CENTER PIECE 25c PILLOW TOP 50c LAUNDRY BAG 75c

This is a special offer package, just to induce trial of this New Embroidery Material.

See the many nice pieces in our South Window. If you call we can explain more fully.

Box Chocolates Given Away Saturday

Agent for Butterick's Patterns and Bangor Eye House

THE LADIES STORE

Mrs. E. F. Crockett

Opposite W. O. Hewett Co.

THE UNIVERSAL CAKE MAKER

is indispensable to all up-to-date house-keepers and cake making is no longer a thing to be dreaded.

Mixes the batter for all kinds of cake easily and quickly.

SOLD BY ROCKLAND HARDWARE CO. ROCKLAND

At the CAS HOUSE R.T. & C. STREET RAILWAY

Reduction of price from $5.00 to $3.25 bbl.

At the CAS HOUSE R.T. & C. STREET RAILWAY

At the CAS HOUSE R.T. & C. STREET RAILWAY

At the CAS HOUSE R.T. & C. STREET RAILWAY

At the CAS HOUSE R.T. & C. STREET RAILWAY

At the CAS HOUSE R.T. & C. STREET RAILWAY

At the CAS HOUSE R.T. & C. STREET RAILWAY

At the CAS HOUSE R.T. & C. STREET RAILWAY

Circus Day

ROCKLAND

MONDAY, June 26

PLEASANT & PARK ST. LOT

THE GLORIOUS GRANDLY NEW

FRANK A. ROBBINS

GREATEST

ALL FEATURE SHOWS

THE RAREST WILD BEASTS

THE CREAM OF

EARTH'S GREAT CIRCUSES

A Foregathering of Famous Fools

Full of Fresh, Freakish Fun.

The Best Scholars of All Brute Creation

From Tusked Tots To Tiniest Tot

A COSMOPOLITAN

HIGH-CLASS HIPPODROME

Whose Classic Court Presents Blue-Ribbon

Circuit-Breaking Thoroughbreds; Brave Riders

Of World-Wide Renown; Male and Female

Charioteers; Popular Jockeys; Dashing Side

Saddle Experts; Steel-Nerved Steeplechasers;

Leone Hurdle Celebrities; Roman Barreque

Equestrians.

THE DIP OF DEATH

The Miraculous Chasm-Vaulting Cyclists

Whose Simultaneous Rival Feats of Flight

Make Even Sensation Shudder.

THE TRIBUNAL OF NATIONS

A New and Entirely Original Personifying

Pageant of Resplendent and Historically

Fascinating

'JUMBO JERUSALEM'

The Famous Camel Colossus Of His Species.

A TRIUMPHAL FETE IN TOKIO

Introducing the Champion Mikado Troupe of Japanese Gymnasts

The First, Finest, Most Finished

Bicyclists, Barreque Equestrians,

Aerialists, Acrobats, Leapers, Tumblers,

Mid-Air Comics, Etc.

Gigantic, Glorious, Free Street Display

A Millionaire March of Mammoth Magnificences

and Mardi-Gras Mirth.

TWO PERFORMANCES DAILY, RAIN OR SHINE,

in Stupendous New Process Waterproof Tents.

47c-50c

LIST OF LETTERS.

Remaining in the Rockland Postoffice

June 3, 1905.

Published by Authority.

Persons calling for letters in the following list will please say they are advertised, otherwise they may not receive them.

Free delivery of letters by Carriers at the residence of owners may be secured by observing the following suggestions.

First--Direct letters plainly to the street and number of the house.

Second--Head letters with the writers full address, including street and number, and request answer to be directed accordingly.

Third--Letters to strangers or transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked in the lower left hand corner with the word "Transient."

Fourth--Place the postage stamp on the upper right hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and the direction for postmarking without interfering with the writing.

Letters to initials or fictitious addresses cannot be delivered.

MEN'S LIST.

Baldwin Charles

Benton Thomas

Bishop Amos

Crosby E. L. Adgt

Crickshaw Robert

Donaldson Thomas

Groves G. W.

Harraden O. H.

Lesell Charles

Martin E.

Mearse Clarence

Morton A. C.

Oxley W. C.

Patterson Fred

Pillsbury C. F.

Robinson Frank

Robinson W. G.

Robinson James B.

Simmons L. W.

Slower Frank E.

The Courier-Gazette.

Twice a Week

President Roosevelt has again done the right thing at exactly the proper moment, in proffering his suggestion to the two eastern powers that they get together and agree upon terms of peace. Both Japan and Russia have signified that they are entirely agreeable to the suggestion. An armistice exists between the opposing armies and it remains only for the commissioners of the two nations to get together. Doubtless this marks the end of the war, for in the general estimation it is clear that Russia will be glad to accept almost any terms Japan may have to offer. The act of President Roosevelt is hailed by all countries with warm commendation. There is no politics in it. For instance the Democratic Brooklyn Eagle says of the President's action:

His act stands in company with the greatest acts of our greatest Presidents.

When President, Ulysses S. Grant arranged the arbitration of our claims against Great Britain. It has in it against us in matters relating to our Civil War.

When President, Abraham Lincoln emancipated the slaves that the South might be weakened in its attack on the Union, and that freedom might be brought to a race.

When President, Andrew Jackson forced Nullification to its knees.

When President, Thomas Jefferson effected with Napoleon Bonaparte the Louisiana Purchase by the impetus of which the Pacific was made our continental western boundary.

When President, Grover Cleveland forced a settlement between England and Venezuela in a manner to vindicate and preserve the rational intention of the Monroe Doctrine. He also vindicated national paramountcy against mob and made Gold forever our measure of value.

Mr. Roosevelt's deed is the latest, but by no means is it ratable as the least of the great acts of American chief magistrates. If not in the interest of union, or of nationality, or of expansion, or of civil war settlements, or of the Monroe doctrine, it is in the interest of the larger and nobler considerations of humanity and of peace which have been the unselfishness, the benevolence and the grandeur that befit the idea of the movement of God for men on the mind of a ruler obedient to the Divine mission. Great in action, great in motive, the result is in line with both. All the hopes of all the heart of all the world were with him. Those hopes have been realized. How great his joy, how great the pride of this people, how great the gratification and the gain of mankind need not be said.

The arrangements making for the Waymouth celebration give abundant promise of an occasion likely to become memorable. No mistake was made when the chief direction of affairs was placed with Mr. Moore. That gentleman, with his accustomed spirit of doing the thing that his hand is put to, has brought out an arrangement of program commensurate with the dignity of the day and the event it celebrates. There remains only the public interest to awaken, to the end that the affair may not lack in attendance. Of this however we have no fear. The order of exercises will be of such merit that it needs only a day of fair weather to insure a great company of men and women from all over this part of the state. In this connection we recommend to the people that they read the opening chapters of Eaton's History of Thomaston. There in narrow compass, the reading of a profitable half-hour, one gets news of the beginning of things in Knox county, the spot upon New England's main land first to be pressed by the feet of Englishmen, the event whose 200th anniversary is next month to be celebrated.

The people of the United States have the best weather-service in the world, the government spending one million five hundred dollars a year on its Weather Bureau—a larger sum than all the governments of Europe combined spend for similar service. The bureau not only gives advance tidings of the weather, but its warnings of cold waves, and storms save millions of dollars in crops every year, to say nothing of uncounted lives. And the story of how all this is accomplished is as fascinating as a Jules Verne romance. This is the subject of Gilbert H. Grosvenor's "Our Heralds of Storm and Flood" in the June Century.

The crowd of on-lookers who assist in the work of laying the asphalt paving on School street testify to the deep interest that citizens feel in public improvements. The comments appear to be all of a favorable character and the finished surface as it unfolds to view impresses the critic with a sense of its beauty and utility. Contractor Howard welcomes the severe test that his work is to receive in the heavy teaming soon to be put upon the street through the building of a brick block there, declaring the test the better will his work show forth.

SEARSMONT

Mrs. Alice Sherman of Appleton is at the Nevins house.

Mrs. James Bair of Palatka, Fla., is in town, called by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Rankett Ness. Mrs. Ness is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stickney of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown last week.

Messrs. Clifford Ness, Ernest Marden, Joe Eyer, Charlie Jones and Ralph Foxley attended the ball game in Belfast last Saturday.

Posters are out announcing the annual opening ball, under the management of Messrs. Knight and McGowan at Dirigo hall, Tuesday evening, June 20. If stormy, the ball will be given Wednesday night.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

Rockland High School Graduation Takes Place Thursday Night—The Program—Some Events of Closing School Life.

The most important week of the entire school year was inaugurated Sunday, when the class of 1905, Rockland High school, assembled at the Universalist church and listened to the fine baccalaureate sermon of Rev. E. H. Chapin.

The graduating exercises take place in Farwell opera house next Thursday evening, and the friends of the 28 students are hoping that the seating capacity of the hall will prove equal to the demands. It is the rule in a High school graduating class for the girls to greatly outnumber the boys, but this year the scales exactly balance for there are 14 of each sex, who have survived the four terms of the school year. The students who took the general course, and the subjects of their essays are as follows:

Idella Brown Aylward, The Ship on the Rocks; Marguerite Hay Belden, The Oil and Vinegar of Life; Vivian Belle Billings, Class Ode; Cora Belle Blackington, Great Fires; Seth Ballou Carlin, Citizen Hero; Genevieve Rixta Cassens, The Old Blue Laws; Ethel Clifton, Poem—"At the Dawn"; Florence Amelia, Dangerous Advantages; Travel; Charles Robie Frye, Jr., The American Forest; Margaret A. Grant, Dressmakers of Paris; Mary Adelaide Harrington, The Power of Tact; Ralph Taylor, The Power of Tact; Hazel Webb Hix, The Church Before the Revolution; Nathan Israel, Socialism, Its Causes and Aims; Sarah Althea Israel, Strikes and Their Causes; Jessie Emma Keating, An Appeal to the American Girl; Scott Farrow Kittredge, Perils of Missions; Christina Frances McNeil, Katharine of Aragon; Lucy Adams Perkins, Maine in Summer; Charles Kimball Philbrick, Ancient and Modern Athletics; Harry Silverman, The Problem of the Hour; Walter Wood Spaulding, Class History.

The college preparatory course was taken by six students—all boys. Their names and the subjects of their essays are as follows:

Percy Haven Baker, Greek Culture in the Age of Pericles; Walter Hillman Butler, The Last of the Old Senators; Scott Sprague Copping, Physical Culture; Albert Kinsman Gardner, The Garden of Maine; Frank Willis Knight, Luther Burbank's Achievements; Francis Eaton Simmons, Class Prophecy.

The program proper of the graduating exercises Thursday night will be as follows: Salutatory—"The Last of the Old Senators"; Mr. Butler, Essay—"The Ship on the Rocks"; Miss Aylward, Oration—"Luther Burbank's Achievements"; Mr. Knight; Music—Orchestra; Essay—"The Power of Tact"; Miss Harrington; Class History, Mr. Spaulding; Oration—"Perils of Missions"; Mr. Kittredge; Poem—"At the Dawn"; Miss Clifton; Music—Orchestra; Essay—"An Appeal to the American Girl"; Miss Keating; Class Prophecy, Mr. Simmons; Valedictory—"Greek Culture"; in the Age of Pericles; Mr. Baker; Presentation of Diplomas; Class Ode.

Friday evening in Kimball hall occurs the annual reception to the graduating class, tendered by the High School Alumni Association of which Edward P. Berry '76 is the president. These receptions are always of an informal nature, it being the intention of the Association to provide an evening of pleasure for those who attend, and to give the newly-fledged graduates an opportunity of meeting those who spoke their places in former years. From 8 until 9:30 there will be a reception of guests, then a short business meeting and program, followed by dancing. The committees in charge of the entertainment are as follows:

Reception Committee—Mrs. Lillian B. Mortland, '72; Mrs. Alice Philbrick, '73; Miss Georgia F. Wiggin, '95; Miss Leola Thordike, '90; Thos. P. Hayden, '91; E. Roy Smith, '93; Decorations Committee—Emma A. Lawrence, '94; Ida A. Knowlton, '93; Leodora F. Bird, '91; Raymond S. Bird, '94; Roy L. Knowlton, '96; Refreshment Committee—Albert C. McLean, '92; Mabel H. McLean, '94; Monira L. Crockett, '96; Frances M. Tibbets, '98; Richard A. Rhodes, '99.

Saturday evening the class has a banquet at the Thordike hotel, followed by a dance. Parnham's Sextet will furnish the music. Next Monday will mark the actual finish of '05's festivities and the probable finish of the fund in the treasury. The class netted about $105 by its entertainments last year and purposes to have a grand good time in "blowing" it. Certainly nobody begrudges the pleasure. The Monday event, to which reference was made above, will be an excursion to Little Deer Isle. Later there will probably be a buckboard ride to Crescent Beach, but by that time the students will have begun to scatter and the excursion of next Monday will probably be the final time in which all the members of the class will be united.

Let them enjoy the next seven days to the utmost.

The baccalaureate sermon, preached Sunday by Rev. E. H. Chapin, attracted a large number of high school students to the Universalist church Sunday. Mr. Chapin took for the subject of his discourse "The Whole Armor of God." One paragraph of the sermon which is especially worthy of quoting, was as follows:

"Have faith. It is essential to every one of you that you have faith in your own souls. Have faith in your fellow men and in this great country of yours. Great souls have great power. In the city of Philadelphia when it was thought that civil righteousness was dead and that the world was in a state of anarchy, and such was the power of honesty that the evil forces did not dare to withstand him. There is too much carelessness, too much indolence, too much palming off other people's work for our own. Do your own work in your own way. Say your own thoughts in your own way. Say what you have to say from your own souls, as if it came from Almighty God. Read everything good, take in everything good. But let it be wrought over in your own soul. Do not depend too much upon others. Success cannot be accomplished by indolence or by dishonesty. By faithfulness the truth will be revealed in your own souls."

The church was prettily decorated with flowers.

THE PRESIDENT'S HAND.

An identical note, the text of which is identical to the President, was made public at the White House by Secretary Loom, has been forwarded to the governments of Russia and Japan by President Roosevelt. The following is the text of the despatch as given out:

"The President feels that the time has come when in the interest of all mankind he must endeavor to see if it is not possible to bring to an end the terrible and lamentable conflict now being waged. With both Russia and Japan the United States has inherited ties of friendship and good will. It hopes for the prosperity and welfare of each, and it feels that the progress of the world is set back by the war between these two great nations. The President accordingly urges the Russian and Japanese governments not only for their own sakes, but in the interest of the whole civilized world, to open direct negotiations for peace with one another."

"The President suggests that these peace negotiations be conducted directly and exclusively between the representatives of the two powers to agree to terms of peace. The President earnestly asks that the (Russian) (Japanese) government do now agree to such a meeting and is asking the (Japanese) (Russian) government likewise to agree."

"While the President does not feel that any intermediary should be called in, in respect to the peace negotiations themselves, he is entirely willing to do what he properly can if the two powers concerned feel that his services will be of aid in arranging the preliminaries as to the time and place of meeting. But if even these preliminaries can be arranged directly between the two powers, or in any other way, the President will be glad, as his sole purpose is to bring about a meeting which the whole civilized world will pray may result in peace."

Formal and satisfactory replies were received to the President's note, and the question as to where the plenipotentiaries are to meet is receiving attention. London financial circles believe that Japan will demand an indemnity of $100,000,000. It is suggested that the terms of Japan will probably also include the acknowledgment of a Japanese protectorate over Korea, the total Russian evacuation of Manchuria, the handing over of certain interests on the Lianung peninsula and at Port Arthur to Japan, and the cession of the railroad from Port Arthur to Harbin. The question of the island of Sakhalin will also be raised.

SMYRNA RUGS

We have picked out two sizes of strictly All Wool Smyrna Rugs we have marked Special Prices on. We want you to come and see our rugs. We can give just as good bargains in other sizes as in the ones mentioned below.

SIZES and PRICES
26 x 54 inches for $1.48
30 x 60 inches for $1.89

At Such Prices No One Should Be Without Rugs

CARPET DEPARTMENT
FULLER & COBB

BURN COKE! BURN COKE!

Coke is worth as much as coal!
Will last as long, and
Gives as much heat.

COSTS ONLY $4.00 Per Ton
AT THE GAS HOUSE.

ROCKLAND, THOMASTON & CAMDEN STREET RAILWAY
445 MAIN STREET, ROCKLAND

Some Facts for Men

WHO WEAR GOOD CLOTHES

Good Clothes must be correct in style, they must fit right, they must wear well. These three qualifications are the first thoughts given in buying our clothing. It is the kind that makes permanent friends of occasional Suit Buyers--makes them return again and again to our store, and causes them to tell their friends about us and the goods we sell. We are not satisfied with just satisfying--we go a step further--please our customers beyond their expectations.

Burpee & Lamb

NEW ENGLAND CLOTHING HOUSE

CAPT. HERBERT L. FARR.

A telegram which proved shock to many in this city, came from Bristol, R. I., yesterday, conveying the news that Capt. Herbert L. Farr had died there that morning. Capt. Farr underwent an operation in a hospital last Friday and was rallying successfully, when there came a sudden change and he failed rapidly. Mr. Farr was born in South Thomaston, April 15, 1856, being a son of Capt. Chandler and Ann E. (Lewis) Farr of Owl's Head. In early life he went to sea, but evinced a preference for land, and for four years held a clerkship in Aroostook county. He then came back by the war between the two great nations. The President accordingly urges the Russian and Japanese governments not only for their own sakes, but in the interest of the whole civilized world, to open direct negotiations for peace with one another.

VETERANS ASSOCIATION.

The annual reunion of the North Knox and West Waldo Veteran Association will be held at Grange hall, Appleton, Wednesday, June 28; if stormy, the first fair day. The meeting will be called to order at 1:30 o'clock.

A FREE GIFT FOR YOU

Every Reader of The Courier-Gazette to Be Given Booth's Pills.

To show what real medicine will do in curing constipation and restoring the bowels and liver to free and natural action, C. H. Pendleton will give away a three-dose package of Booth's Laxative Pills to every one calling at his store or sending by mail.

This package that is given you by C. H. Pendleton will prove there is no gripping, no straining, no degeneration of stomach or bowels when Booth's Laxative Pills are used. They give a gentle, natural, easy movement that completely relieves the system of all waste matter.

A large package of Booth's Pills costs but 25c, and they are guaranteed to cure headache, specks before the eyes, dizziness, liver blotches, pimples, constipation, and all trouble of the liver and bowels. Get the free package to-day, and you will say you never before found a medicine that did you so much good in a short time.

A NEW WRINKLE

ROYAL SOCIETY... EMBROIDERY FLOSS

This Floss is put up in Packages with Piece for making, Color card and directions. You only pay for Floss.

CENTER PIECE 25c. PILLOW TOP 50c. LAUNDRY BAG 75c.

This is a special offer package, just to induce a trial of this New Embroidery Material.

See the many nice Pieces in our South Window. If you call we can explain more fully.

Box Chocolates Given Away Saturday

Agent for Butterick's Patterns and Bangor Eye House

THE LADIES STORE

Mrs. E. F. Crockett
Opposite W. O. Hewett Co.

THE UNIVERSAL CAKE MAKER

is indispensable to all up-to-date house-keepers and cake making is no longer a thing to be dreaded. Mixes the batter for all kinds of cake easily and quickly.

SOLD BY
ROCKLAND HARDWARE CO.
ROCKLAND

THE TRIBUNAL OF NATIONS

A New and Entirely Original Personifying Pageant of Resplendent and Historically Fascinating

'JUMBO JERUSALEM'

The Famous and Colossal Of His Species

A TRIUMPHAL FETE IN TOKIO

Introducing the Champion Miao Miao Troupe of Japanese Gymnasts.

The First, Finest, Most Finished Cyclists, Bareback Equestrians, Acrobats, Acrobats, Leapers, Tumblers, Mid-Air Comics, Etc.

Gigantic, Glorious, Free Street Display

A Millionaire March of Mammoth Magnificences

Two Performances DAILY, RAIN OR SHINE, in Stupendous New Process Waterproof Tents.

47-50

LIST OF LETTERS.

Remaining in the Rockland Postoffice June 3, 1905.

Published by Authority.

Persons calling for letters in the following list will please say they are advertised, otherwise they may not receive them.

Free delivery of letters by Carriers at the residence of owners may be secured by observing the following suggestions.

First--Direct letters plainly to the street and number of the house.

Second--Head letters with the writers full address, including street and number, and request answer to be directed accordingly.

Third--Letters to strangers or transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked in the lower left hand corner with the word "Transient."

Fourth--Place the postage stamp on the upper right hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and the direction for postmarking without interfering with the writing.

Letters to initials or fictitious addresses cannot be delivered.

MEN'S LIST.

Baldwin Charles
Benton Thomas
Bishop Anna
Crosby E. L. Adet
Crinkshaw Robert
Donaldson Thomas
Glover G. W.
Harraden O. H.
Lancaster J. J.
Lynch Charles
Morton A. C.
Oliver Charles R.
Oxton W. C.
Patterson Fred
Pillsbury C. G.
Robinson Frank B.
Robertson James B.

WOMEN'S LIST.

Averill Susan M.
Baker Frank E.
Manning H. L.
Martin Edward S.
Weymouth Dr. F. A.
Woods John
Wyman C. W.
See Fleiss Peter
Foley J. J.

CHILDREN'S LIST.

Blackington Mrs.
Cameron Wm. M.
Carlson D. A.
Collett John Mrs.
Fisher Mary Mrs.
Fyne Winifred Mrs.
Simmons Mary Mrs.
Wend Louise
Lunnin Miss M. E.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Ritchie

LADIES:

Is your hair falling out, or dry and split at the ends? Do you have any dandruff, eczema or itching sensations of the scalp? If you wish to be cured of this

Use Face-Crino

A SURE CURE

It will leave the hair soft and pliable and brilliant.

PREPARED BY
--- F. L. BENNER ---
WALDOBORO, ME. 44-47

Lost and Found

A GENTLEMAN'S POCKETBOOK--Saturday morning between Grant's Hotel and Grant's Fruit Store, containing a check, payable to Clara Cates, also a small sum of money. Finder please leave at THOMAS STAVEY, Upper Pleasant Street, and receive reward. Tel. 432-11. 47-50

LOST--A LADY'S GOLD WATCH (Hunter case), on Decoration Day between Warren street and Park street. Finder please leave at this office and receive reward. 44-47

Wanted

HORSE WANTED--NOT HIGH PRICED, for driving, sound and kind. LEO NARDI, Owl's Head Road. 47-50

WANTED--75 HENS, More or less will do. cash. Also would like a horse for the keeping for the next three months, or would buy one at a reasonable price. Write at once. ROBERT L. EMERY, Owl's Head, Me. 47-48

WANTED--DRESS-MAKER, OR LADY doing work of like sort, to join with me for company in entering room in Rockland. Address, MISS L. M. STUBBS, Vinalhaven, Me. 47-49

WANTED--NET KNITTERS to knit laundry bags. Clean work, easily learned. Address, J. S. L. STUBBS, Vinalhaven, (agency soon to be established in Rockland). 47-50

WANTED--BOARD IN PRIVATE FAMILY for July and August, while the naval ships are in port. Two rooms--one double, one single--two persons. Leave particulars at The Courier-Gazette office. MRS. L. N. REYNOLDS, 124 North Street, Philadelphia. 47-48

WANTED--We want you to know we are headquarters for Fly Wire, Ten Wire, Garden Hose, Screen Doors and Window Screens. ROCKLAND HARDWARE CO., Rockland. 45-47

WANTED--MAN WANTED familiar with Stonington, Deerfield and vicinity. To drive Tea and Coffee Team. Enquire of NEW YORK 5 & 10 CENT STORE. 44-47

WANTED--Agents have made $700 a day, selling the new and improved CO-OPERATIVE CO., North Waldoboro, Maine. 45-47

WE WANT YOU TO KNOW--That we have the largest and best stock of ROCKLAND HARDWARE CO. Rockland. 45-47

WANTED--People to learn the following facts: Corns removed and permanently cured; falling hair arrested and growth promoted; superfluous hair removed. Shampooing, manicuring, and electrical machinery as aids and restoratives used with excellent effect. Towels, goods of all kinds, first-class styles. Low prices. ROCKLAND HARDWARE CO., 330 Main St. 14-17 and employment given to girls and women, housework, second work, sewing, and all kinds of domestic work, embroidery or canning. Apply at once to Women's Exchange and Intelligence Bureau, 84 Broad street. Telephone 18-12. 47-48

HELP WANTED

For Sale

UPLIGHT PIANO FOR SALE--Leaving the city. Must sell regardless of price. elegant upright cabinet grand piano, Rich Moller brand, new, light action, bought last summer and used but a few weeks. Fully warranted for 10 years by prominent maker. Will sell for $150.00 to a quick cash buyer as much as $200.00. Call on Mrs. M. S. LARSEN, 404-405 Broadway, New York City. 47-48

PIANO TOP BUGGY--Nearly New, and a good one. Call on Mrs. M. S. LARSEN, 404-405 Broadway, New York City. 47-48

FOR SALE--Sleeping Boat, 36 feet, 8 1/2 beam, new four horse power engine, boat perfectly tight, six tubs of towels. New dory, sails, oars, and all the necessary outfit. Will take outfit with a good fisherman on halves. Enquire at COURIER GAZETTE OFFICE. 44-47

FOR SALE--Investment property, one store, 3 tenements, and all rented; all on one lot, fine location. This property is paying $44 per month in rent. The property is located on $525.00. Buildings are in good repair. This property can be bought at a great bargain. If bought at once, apply to H. M. FALCIN, 608 Main street, Rockland. 40-48

FOR SALE--GRAY MARK--11 YEARS OLD (115 pounds, sound and kind, one of the best horses in the State. Good for all purposes. A perfect family horse. Sold for no fault. J. A. SHERMAN, Appleton. Me. 43-47

FOR SALE--Millinery Business, Stock and Fixtures. A fine business, large stock of making and general ladies' store at Fort Clyde. Doing a good business. Building can be leased for a long or short time. Good place for the right party. Apply for particulars to J. W. BALANCO, Fort Clyde, Maine. 47-48

FOR SALE--2 Billiard Tables, fine shape, prices $200 and $250; One Billiard Table, built by Wingate & Simmons, good as new, price $85; 2 Hacks, one with top, one without top, price $150. New Safes, prices $125, $150, $200. One light and hand Bed, can be in the shape price $85; One Corrugated Milk Wagon in fine shape, price $75. One Pneumatic Delivery Wagon good as new, price $100. Call on J. A. SHERMAN, 608 Main street, Rockland, Me. Tel. 373-11. 40-47

FOR SALE OR TO LET--A Cottage at Crescent Beach. Inquire of W. H. HATCH, Thomaston. 45-47

FOR SALE--SULPHATE OF IRON, The Great Disinfectant and deodorizer, killing all kinds of germs. Great Fertilizer, stimulating the growth of plants and trees. Use freely about the barns and hen-houses. 2 cents a pound. H. H. CRIE & CO. 38-47

To Let

TO LET--THREE FURNISHED ROOMS and stable. No small children. Open fire place. Nice Law, Adams, & C. A. R. O. S. of Pleasant street. Rockland 8. 40-49

TO LET--Tenement in Jones Block & Good location for a small family. Apply at COURIER-GAZETTE OFFICE. 45-47

Miscellaneous

NOTICE--ALL PERSONS ARE CAUTIONED Against landing upon Motine Green Island as to disturb the colony of Merlins now breeding there, but their eggs and nests, as the National Association of Audubon Societies have issued this notice in order to protect the birds breeding there and it is hoped that it will be the largest colony of Merlins and Laughing Gulls on the American coast. For order of the President, the American coast. 47-48

COBB LINE COMPANY

"SPECIAL MEETING" Rockland, Maine, June 12th, A. D. 1905. A special meeting of the stockholders of the Cobb Line Company will be held at the office of Rodwell Granite Company, in said Rockland, on Wednesday, the 21st day of June, A. D. 1905, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the following purposes, viz: To see if the stockholders of the Company will vote to dissolve said corporation and wind up its affairs, and to take such action relating to the same as may be deemed necessary. G. W. LEADBETTER, Secretary. 47-48-49

NOTICE

TO THE PUBLIC

The Shaw Sisters

Hereby give notice that they have moved into their new quarters OVER O. E. BLACKINGTON'S SHOE STORE, same entrance as to Dr. Damon's Dental Parlors, where they have a very commodious location and a large stock of TRIMMED HATS and their low expense places them in a position to SELL LOWER than any other milliner in this city, and their artistic work as Trimmers of Fine Hats is second to none in the city. All are invited.

302 Main St., Rockland, Me. 46-47

The SHAW SISTERS

BEGINNING JUNE 13th, FOR TWO WEEKS ONLY

We will exhibit and sell at our store the finest and choicest line of

ORIENTAL RUGS and HANGINGS

ever shown in Rockland. The rugs are the personal collection of Mr. John Peters (Bedrosian) of Boston and Constantinople, the well known Importer, Retailer and Expert on rugs. This collection comprises a remarkable assortment of the finest weaves of unique designs and beautiful colorings. In collection, quality and character, it forms a most rare exhibit. We cordially invite you and your friends to come and see this unusually fine exhibition whether you wish to purchase or not. Mr. Peters will conduct the sale in person.

Carpet Department

FULLER & COBB

Talk of the Town

Coming Neighborhood Events.

June 13-14—Annual meeting of Lincoln Conference at Congregational church, Union.
June 14-15—H. S. Graduation Ball, White hall.
June 15—East Union—Knox Pomona.
June 15-16—H. S. graduation at Farwell opera house.
June 16—High School Alumni Reception in Kimball hall.
June 22—Annual Convention of Knox county W. C. T. U. at Thompson.
June 24—Pilgrimage of Claremont Commandery to Lewiston.
June 26—Pilgrimage of De Valois Commandery to Lewiston.
June 27—Pilgrimage of De Valois Commandery to North Haven.
June 27—Sunset Hotel opens.
June 28, 29, 30—Dedication of Wesleyan Grange hall.
June 29—Faculty Recital by Rockland Music school at Congregational church.
June 29—Frank Robbins' Circus in Rockland.
July 1—Arrival of U. S. Cruising Squadron.
July 1—Laying of the corner stone of the Littlefield Memorial church.
July 6—Thomaston, Waymouth Celebration.
August 16—Thomaston, Baptist Circle will have musical, sale and tea at Mrs. J. E. Walker's.
Aug. 30—Fair and sale by Grace Chapter, O. E. S., in Masonic Hall, Thomaston.

The Street Railway is rebuilding one of its flat cars into a box car.

The meetings of Edwin Libby Relief Corps have been discontinued for the summer.

The house on Pleasant street occupied by Frank L. Newbert, has been painted.

High School closes today for the summer vacation. The other schools also close this week.

The Rubinstein Club has a picnic at Mrs. T. E. Tibbets' cottage, Ashmerek, tomorrow, if pleasant.

There will be another dance at Glover hall, Warren, tomorrow night, with music by Rockcliffe's orchestra.

Friends of the high school graduates are requested to bear in mind that no flowers are to be presented on the stage Thursday night.

The first hurdy gurdy of the season put in appearance Saturday. A glance at the horse which drew it accounts for its belated arrival.

The Rankin street woman who did her washing Saturday in order to take in the circus yesterday, was certainly abreast of the times.

Harvey Reed recently made a fine group picture of the Rockland high school baseball team, copies of which may be obtained at his studio.

A building which is to be used as a lunch room by H. L. Thomas is being erected on the northern side of Sea street, west of St. Clair & Allen's candy factory.

A sloop which has been equipped with an auxiliary engine and christened the Federationist, has been improved into service by Stuart Reid, who is now on a trip along the coast organizing fishermen. Next fall and winter the craft will be used in southern waters.

We have received a souvenir program of the May Festival given by the New Britain (Conn.) Choral Society, the 22d and 24th. Among the features were two cantatas, "The Death of Minnehaha" and "The Cross of Pile." F. M. Hewett, formerly of Thomaston, sang in the chorus.

Super John T. Berry has returned from Stoughton, Mass., where he has been connected with the construction of a street railway. He is firmly convinced that the Owl's Head road will be completed and placed in operation this season. The public earnestly hopes that his belief is justified.

The Ladies' Circle of the Methodist church at their business meeting last Wednesday elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Rose Glidden; secretary, Mrs. Abbie Hall; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Smalley; collector, Mrs. Carrie Staples; directors, Mesdames Farrand, Day, Cook, Sutcliffe and Robinson.

John Peters (Bedrosian) of Boston and Constantinople is exhibiting for two weeks a fine collection of Oriental rugs and hangings at Fuller & Cobb's. Mr. Peters is well known to our people as he has visited here many times and it is also well known that he is an authority on the goods he handles. This collection, which was selected by Mr. Peters himself, comprises a remarkable assortment of the finest weaves of unique design and beautiful colorings, and in quality and character forms a most rare exhibit. Mr. Peters has spent a lifetime in selecting rugs and is as thoroughly familiar with them as any man can be. People who would like to have Oriental rugs and hangings have the wrong conception regarding them. They know their value but think the price beyond their pocketbook. Mr. Peters will convince anyone in a short time that the average pocketbook contains enough of the needful to purchase one or more of this elegant Oriental productions.

The graduating exercises of the High school will be held in Farwell opera house Thursday evening. The program appears elsewhere in this issue.

There will be a special meeting of King Solomon Temple Chapter next Thursday evening, June 15. The Royal Arch and Mark Master degrees will be conferred on several candidates.

The Sprague tenement advertised in our last issue has been let to H. W. Merry. Geo. T. Stuart will vacate this week and take up his residence in the Henry Tibbets house on Granite street.

Orville T. Woods has gone to Owl's Head where he will run bookbinder in connection with the Simpson House. The hotel is to be occupied again this season as a retreat for feeble-minded.

The National Association of Audubon Societies for the protection of wild birds and wild animals, has leased the island of Metacale for the purpose of protecting the large colony of moose and laughing gulls now breeding there. By order of the national president, William Dutcher, all persons are cautioned against coming on the island and disturbing the birds.

Passengers on the steamer Vinahaven were treated to something of a sensation yesterday forenoon, when a horse belonging to Clifford Clarke of Thomaston came on board, dashed through the open door of the freight room and dived overboard. An attempt was made to save him, but the animal's head was dragged under the water and he was drowned. The accident occurred when the steamerboat was about two miles from Owl's Head, approaching Rockland.

Children's Sunday at the Methodist church and the arrival of Hargreaves' circus, coincident events which had an unfortunate effect upon the former. Less than 20 children are said to have been present at the morning service, and in place of the normal attendance of 300 at the Sunday school, there were less than 50 pupils present.

The concert in the evening was a very successful affair, however. Pastor Sutcliffe accepted the desecrations cheerfully and the Sunday come on a date when no circus is coming to town.

I. D. Randall, who represents the firm of Conant, Patrick & Co., Portland, and Capt. "Sam" Goss of Stonington were the victims of a weight guessing contest among the passengers on steamer Vinahaven last Friday. They are both very sizable men and R. G. Ingraham, the well known cornetist, was the man who guessed the nearest to either man's weight. Mr. Ingraham set Mr. Randall's weight at 275 pounds (his exact weight) and hit Capt. Goss' weight within a few pounds. The captain tips the beam at 267 pounds. A correspondent suggests that Messrs. Goss and Randall be given a job on our police force when they get their growth.

Stuart Reid, who has been operating in this locality for several months past in the interests of the American Federation of Labor, states that a central labor union will be formed here before the present month expires. The A. F. L. will then have a very strong organization in this section of the state, the complete strength of which will be demonstrated in the great Labor Day carnival which he promises for next September. Mr. Reid has been content to hold himself aloof from the line strike in this city, preferring not to mix in the affairs of the International Laborers' Union, with which the Lime-workers' Union is affiliated. The A. F. L. branches in this city include the quarrymen and lime trimmers, which may have had more or less temptation to go out on a sympathetic strike. Such a course was against the advice of Stuart Reid, and the men who have been held in line by President Burns are probably not regretting that they yielded to the conservative course.

Stuart Reid is continuing for the American Federation of Labor, states that a central labor union will be formed here before the present month expires. The A. F. L. will then have a very strong organization in this section of the state, the complete strength of which will be demonstrated in the great Labor Day carnival which he promises for next September. Mr. Reid has been content to hold himself aloof from the line strike in this city, preferring not to mix in the affairs of the International Laborers' Union, with which the Lime-workers' Union is affiliated. The A. F. L. branches in this city include the quarrymen and lime trimmers, which may have had more or less temptation to go out on a sympathetic strike. Such a course was against the advice of Stuart Reid, and the men who have been held in line by President Burns are probably not regretting that they yielded to the conservative course.

There have been no particularly important developments in the strike situation. Rumors have been plenty that Harriman had been trading with the A. F. L., that he was a dead duck, but the men seem to be as loyal as ever to him, and at their meeting last night once more voted not to return until their requests are granted. Mr. Harriman tells a reporter of The Courier-Gazette that his last communication with the A. F. L. was when he wrote to Secretary Frank Morrison returning the charter which he had received from the Federation, and practically telling Morrison that he (Harriman) washed his hands of the organization. A few of the men appear to realize that the jig is up. One of them told The Courier-Gazette last night that he was going back to work for the syndicate; that he had a wife and child who needed his services more than the union did.

Look in the south window at Spear's, 408 Main street for Sporting Goods, Revolvers, Fishing Tackle, Hunting Knives, etc.

Will Cure a Cough—Three Crow Pine and Elm.

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

The Standard Oil Co. office will close at noon Saturdays.

Master Benjamin Farnham is out again after a three weeks' illness with the measles.

Quite a number of Rocklandites are going to Waterville next Thursday to attend the big ball.

Strawberries at 10 cents a box were in the local markets Saturday, but were not permitted to remain long on the counters.

Farnham's Sextet has been engaged to furnish music for the high school reception and ball at the Thorndike hotel next Saturday evening.

The Pleasant Valley Grange dance last Thursday evening was attended by about 40 couples. The Grange will hold its next dance Friday, June 23.

The M. V. U. Society will hold one of their famous suppers at half price tomorrow evening. The housekeepers on this occasion will be Mrs. Harris Cope, land, Mrs. Jas. Gardner and Mrs. Warren Gardner.

Invitations have been received here to the annual reception of Rho Rho Chapter of Sigma Chi Fraternity which takes place at the chapter house in Orono this afternoon. Raphael S. Sherman and Harold L. Karl are members of the committee.

Among the distinguished people who have accepted invitations to the banquet to be given complimentary to Hon. John S. Hyde, June 28, is Hon. Charles E. Littlefield, representative of the Second Maine district in Congress. Mr. Littlefield will be one of the speakers of the evening—Bath Times.

Governor Cobb has accepted an invitation from the executive committee of the coming Exposition and Military Carnival at Portland, to be present with his staff, June 23, and to review the troops, including the 33d Canadian Regiment of Sherbrooke, commanded by Col. Fraser. A banquet will be given in honor of Gov. Cobb and staff that evening.

At a recent session of Pleasant Valley Grange a mouse thirsting for a knowledge of the secret workings of the order entered unannounced and it is whispered that one of the handiest young lady members promptly and with great agility took possession of the top of the highest table and for a while there was "something doing." Who caught the mouse?

A bolted lobster feast was enjoyed by the Street Railway employees, at the power house, Saturday, the spread being at the expense of the men who did not correctly guess the time in which the coal fleet would arrive. One of those who got stuck wasn't exactly a loser, either, for he ate five of the lobsters, himself. He was certainly the marshall of the day.

Arthur Marsh, who attended the Sons of Veterans' Encampment in Waterville last week was a witness of the sensational shooting and arrest of a police officer who was being hunted on the charge of having committed a criminal assault. As the prisoner was being conveyed to the station the street was so filled with people that it was almost impossible for the officers to make any progress.

Belfast Journal: John S. Fernald recently bound for Thomas E. Shea some type-written copies of a new historical drama entitled "Napoleon the Great." The play is in five periods and deals with the main incidents in the life of Napoleon Bonaparte, from his return from Egypt to Waterloo, was written by Channing Pollock, and is owned by Nixon, Zimmerman and Thomas E. Shea. It will be included in Mr. Shea's repertoire for next season.

Commencement exercises at Hebron Academy take place June 18-21. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. Bowley Green of Portland. June 19 will be devoted to prize debate. June 20 there will be the senior class reception to alumni and friends and presentation of class gift by Robert W. Messer of Rockland. Wednesday, June 21, will be devoted to the graduating exercises, the commencement dinner and the commencement concert by the Corinthian Male Quartet, assisted by a talented reader.

This is what the Camden Herald says about the man who is now building permanent streets in Rockland: "Mr. Howard has completed his concrete work here and on Tuesday left for Rockland, where he has considerable work. Mr. Howard has done more work this time than ever before, laying about 2000 yards of concrete walks for the town, as well as a considerable amount for private individuals. As all of his walks stand well, he has now a long line of permanent concrete walks. Mr. Howard does such good work and is, besides, such a good fellow that Camden people have strong faith in him and would think of no one else doing the work."

Rockland was represented at the Sons of Veterans' encampment in Waterville last week by Past Commander E. K. Gould and Arthur L. Orne, George Clark, J. Pearl Billings, Herbert Munn, Charles W. Burpee, Arthur Marsh and Harold Hanson. Mortimer Hill of the Camden camp was also with the delegation. Col. Gould was re-elected one of the trustees of the encampment of history for three years. The encampment year will be held in Lewiston. Newport and Farmington would also have liked the honor. Mrs. Helen Moody of Waterville is a member of the division council of the Ladies' State Auxiliary, connected with the Sons of Veterans order.

There have been no particularly important developments in the strike situation. Rumors have been plenty that Harriman had been trading with the A. F. L., that he was a dead duck, but the men seem to be as loyal as ever to him, and at their meeting last night once more voted not to return until their requests are granted. Mr. Harriman tells a reporter of The Courier-Gazette that his last communication with the A. F. L. was when he wrote to Secretary Frank Morrison returning the charter which he had received from the Federation, and practically telling Morrison that he (Harriman) washed his hands of the organization. A few of the men appear to realize that the jig is up. One of them told The Courier-Gazette last night that he was going back to work for the syndicate; that he had a wife and child who needed his services more than the union did.

Look in the south window at Spear's, 408 Main street for Sporting Goods, Revolvers, Fishing Tackle, Hunting Knives, etc.

Will Cure a Cough—Three Crow Pine and Elm.

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

WANTED
CLOTHING PRESSMAN
Good Man
Mowry & Payson

Mrs. Cote-Howard and Mrs. Lou Dunean Barney of Portland are to be the soloists at the faculty recital of the Rockland Music School in the Congregational church June 28.

The noble grand of Knox Lodge, Frank E. Miller, is now an Encampment Old Fellow. The Golden Rule and Royal Purple degrees were conferred upon him Friday night.

At the meeting of the Universalist parish last night the following trustees were elected: C. M. Walker, E. B. Hastings, W. T. Cobb, E. S. Farwell, H. O. Gurdy, J. F. Gregory and C. H. Berry.

The report that Walter L. Main's circus was to exhibit here July 3, and that Rockland was to have six circuses this season is somebody's pipe dream. Robbins' circus on the 26th instant is the next and last.

A mass meeting of the quarrymen, union and non-union will be held in Kimball hall this evening, addressed by P. P. McCann, secretary of the Quarrymen's International Union. The meeting begins at 7:30.

Judge L. R. Campbell and wife are planning to entertain the members of Golden Rod Chapter, O. E. S., at their cottage, Holiday Beach, Wednesday, June 21st. It is needless to add that the "Stars" are looking forward to a very pleasant occasion.

By vote of the school board the graduation tickets are disposed of same as last year. Each ticket is for $1.25. The tickets are to be sold at the school house, 21st street, and a limited number of standing room tickets will be distributed among first-comers at the hall Thursday at 9 a. m. No admission Thursday night without ticket.

Arthur H. Berry has become successful in the boot and shoe firm of E. W. Berry & Co., and is now conducting a remarkable clearance sale of the bankrupt stock. Some prices hitherto unknown in the furnishings line are announced. Mr. Berry has been in this business a great many years, and as proprietor of the concern will have the best wishes of his many friends.

The advertising card of Frank A. Robbins' circus arrived in the city yesterday, attracting the usual amount of attention at the Maine Central depot. On board were W. M. Goodwin, the general agent, and about a dozen men who circulated literature pertaining to this great show. Robbins' circus established its reputation long ago, and Mr. Goodwin is looking for big business on the approaching tour through Maine.

The local Scottish Rite bodies are to have a meeting tonight, under special dispensation, to elect officers. The election took place a few weeks ago, but through an oversight it was not done under a special dispensation, at a stated meeting, and the duty of Maine has issued a special dispensation in order that it may be done legally. In all probability the game officers will be chosen that were elected at the other meeting.

Quite a quantity of circus liquor failed to reach its destination. At the boat wharf Thursday night Marshall Fernald seized a five gallon keg of whiskey, and Friday morning he repeated the performance. The inventory of the seized liquor being as follows: A five gallon keg of whiskey, a five-gallon jug of whiskey, a three-gallon jug of whiskey, and 16 quart bottles of whiskey. Marshall Fernald has stated that his policy will be to seize all liquor that in his opinion is intended for sale. The 16 quart bottles of whiskey seized at Tillson wharf Saturday were undoubtedly ordered for that purpose, he thinks.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J. Day delivered an address at Sedgwick yesterday, in connection with the centennial anniversary of the First Baptist church of this town, which is being celebrated this week. From Sedgwick Mr. Day went to Millinocket where he is one of a congenial party now engaged in whipping prolific trout streams.

Rev. W. J.

The Witch of Cragenstone

By ANITA CLAY MUNOZ.
Author of "In Love and Truth"

Copyright, 1905, by Anita Clay Munoz
CHAPTER XX—Continued.

The wind rose and blew colder through the trees. Drawing her cloak closer about her, Margaret clung to her lover's arm.

"'Tis a solemn night, Margaret," he said whimsically, "thou and I have to get on this high mountain top, miles away from those who love us and in reality among a band of evil wishers and enemies—we two, with our truth plighted and our wedding day so near at hand! Is't not enough to make a man stop to consider when he is on the brink of such a serious undertaking? Sweet Margaret," he continued seriously, pressing her hand, "knowing so well thy worth, seeing thy marvelous beauty and having a fine understanding of the high character, I trouble lest, imperfect man that I am, I may not live up to thy standard; that I may fail to fill thy life so full of happiness as I hope now and pray God I may do."

Margaret laughed a sweet, low, happy laugh.

"Hath finished, foolish Godfrey? Then hear mine answer to thy driveling. In all the world I love no one like thee. Of thy imperfections I know naught. Thou art part of me. With-out thee I would die. When dear Godfrey, thou art near me, 'tis then the sun doth shine, an' when thou'rt gone all is gray, dull and dark, an' naught is bright until thou dost come again. An', Godfrey, I trust thee entirely. I come to thee willingly to thy own dear wife, to care for thee to do thy bidding, to go with thee wherever thy fortunes take thee, hand in hand and heart to heart, and to love thee, Godfrey, until death us do part."

"Speak of naught that can part us, sweet Margaret!" he cried, with eager haste. "Let us talk only of bright hopes, long life, happiness, joy and love!"

"Happiness, joy and love!" she repeated softly.

Suddenly on their ears fell the sound of the steady tramping of many feet. Both drew apart and listened attentively. An officer's voice, clear and sharp, came from the distance, and through the dense stillness of the night by the light wind, and soon they could see across the fields, the full moon illuminating the steel helmets that they wore, a small band of soldiers on their way to the village. Margaret looked at her lover in questioning amazement, and La Fabienne, his face expressing quick suspicion, uttered an exclamation, and, running down to the stile, watched the soldiers until they turned the corner and disappeared.

"If 'tis as I think," he muttered, "the villain hath me! I had no thought he would dare aught against us. I have played the fool! Margaret," he cried, going to her with quick strides, "think of the light of soldiers that there may be hiding hereabout, so I would take thee from here speedily. On the morrow he will be ready to see thee, and thou and I, and we will ride away without further delay. Farewell, dear love. God keep thee."

He threw his arms about her protectingly as he led her to the door. At the steps they both paused. "Margaret," he said seriously, "thou saidst erstwhile thou trusted me. Didst mean it, sweet?"

"Godfrey, I trust thee."

"These are dark times, Margaret, darker mayhap than we know," he said, "but whatever cometh, if things go not our way, trust me. Know that thou art in my heart before all else. And now farewell again. I have business in the village and must give my parting instructions to Gaston."

Margaret's eyes were filled with tears at her lover's earnestness, and as he attempted to leave she clung to him, sobbing bitterly.

"Godfrey, thy words are ominous," she cried. "Thou knowest something of evil portent. A feeling of fear hath fallen on my heart."

"Take courage, love. Farewell, Margaret Mayland showing fear of these dull village wights! Didst not hear my promise, sweet, that on the morrow we'd be gone before the village is astir?"

As her head still drooped on his shoulder and she did not reply, he repeated:

"Didst thou not hear me, Margaret?"

She raised her head, and, although there was an expression of strength and resolution in her eyes, her lips trembled.

"Ay, I heard thee, and at sunrise dressed for the journey, thou find me at the door. God be with thee, Godfrey."

"In a few short hours we will ride away," he said, with affected gaiety. "Farewell again, and once again farewell," embracing her tenderly. "And now, so much I have to do, perforce I must be gone."

Putting her inside the door and closing it, he walked quickly down the path toward the forest, and when he reached it he had to grope his way to keep from stumbling, for the moon went under a cloud, and a dark shadow fell athwart the mountain.

CHAPTER XXI.

AT the Sign of the Red Heart La Fabienne found a scene of unusual excitement and commotion—soldiers just arrived and moving about restlessly among themselves or calling roughly for bed and supper; the busy landlord cursing and giving angry orders to a slumbering housemaid, and horse boys, agape with admiration of the scarlet coats, glittering cuirassiers and helmets of the newcomers—for soldiers were hurriedly piling hay in the corners of the large, low roofed kitchen for the men to sleep upon. Catching a glimpse of Sir Godfrey making his way through the throng to the foot of the narrow staircase, his host ran after him and, touching him on the shoulder, whispered anxiously, "My lord."

La Fabienne paused.

Nervous Women

Their Sufferings Are Usually Due to Uterine Disorders Perhaps Unsuspected

A MEDICINE THAT CURES

Can we dispute the well-known fact that American women are nervous? How often do we hear the expression, "I am so nervous, it seems as if I should fly!" or, "Don't speak to me!" Little things annoy you and make you irritable; you can't sleep, you are unable to quietly and calmly perform your daily tasks or care for your children.

The relation of the nerves and generative organs in women is so close that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous debility, the blues, sleeplessness and nervous irritability arise from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Fits of depression or restlessness and irritability. Spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps. Pain in the ovaries and between the shoulders. Loss of voice, nervous dyspepsia. A tendency to cry at the least provocation. All this points to nervous prostration.

Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. M. E. Shotwell, of 103 Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I cannot express the wonderful relief I have experienced by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered for a long time with nervous prostration, backache, headache, loss of appetite. I could not sleep and would walk the floor almost every night. I had three doctors and got no better, and was a burden. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has worked wonders for me. I am a well woman, my nervousness is all gone, and my friends say I look ten years younger."

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all women of its virtues? Surely you cannot wish to remain sick and weak and discouraged, exhausted each day, when you can be as easily cured as other women.

A light nature regarding the captain's pet theme—women. "Didst march far today?"

"From Stenford," he answered, with darkening face.

"Beshrew my heart! But this country must have been intended for wild beasts with claws instead of human beings with only hair and steel points. I have been obliged to march at once across the foothills over the mountain, and such crawling, climbing, tearing and cutting our way none will ever know."

"'Twas well when so weary that thou found the Sign of the Red Heart to rest, for a strong man arrived, as I am, hath had little chance to hear of the happenings round about."

La Fabienne observed carefully. "But this soldier pooled village looketh not like a warrior camp. Here, good fellow, finish thine ale," he cried as the officer, grinning his head to speak, was about to ask him a question, "so that I can offer thee some red wine that I have in yonder fagon on the table. So thou'rt not on thy way to join comrades?"

The captain flushed his ale as directed, and the empty pewter tankard came down on the bench with a ringing sound.

"My business in the village," he said, lowering his voice and looking toward the door apprehensively, "hath a deal of secrecy about it, as my most important instructions were to hold converse with no one but the members of the council."

Sir Godfrey rose and, bringing the jug of wine, commenced to ply the man with liquor, laughing and jesting merrily as he did so.

At last the captain, who was very weary from his long day's march and whose face was red from excess of drinking, cried that he had had enough and must keep his senses, as he and his men were under orders to rise at daybreak.

"Uds daggars!" he continued under his breath, with a drunken lurch. "An' the witch escapes any other way than up 't' the air astride a broomstick I lose the king's favor."

"Thy business here concerneth a witch?" his companion questioned curiously.

The captain was hiccupping slightly, and he reeled and almost fell as he tugged at his boot.

"Beshrew me, yes. Such devil's work and devil's luck as hath been mine this day doth keep me cursing. Two long weeks we have been buried in Stenford, and just as we were expecting instructions to go back to London we were ordered here to capture some old beldam who hath been doing serious pranks and stirring up devils in the community."

"An old woman?" La Fabienne looked on eagerly. "Hast thou her name, man?"

The captain fumbled among his papers and, drawing forth a sheet of parchment, spelled out with difficulty the name—Margaret Mayland, accused by Josiah Taunton and Adam Browlie," he read slowly.

"And so thou takest the witch at daybreak?" La Fabienne observed lightly. "What reason for such haste, good fellow?"

"I know not the reason of such haste, good sir. Doubtless a soldier asks not reasons, but obeys orders."

"Worms?"

Among the medicines for women, the Bitters has long been recognized as the best. Its 50 years' record proves its value without doubt.

TRY IT FOR: Sleeplessness, Backache, Headache, Nervous Stomach, Indigestion. It always cures.

Worms? Many children are troubled with worms, and treated for something else. A few doses of Dr. True's Elixir will cure them.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

Dr. True's Elixir is a powerful purgative, and will cure worms, and all other ailments of the bowels.

La Fabienne yawned. "Thy tale, forsooth, hath a touch of interest in it, friend, with a promise of excitement for the morrow," he said. "Hast not a similar document, captain? Of what portent is that?"

"This other paper?" The man lowered his voice. "Prithie, 'tis a warrant for the arrest and custody of some Frenchman she hath bewitched, or is an accomplice to the old hag in her devilment. I wot not which. My information is but vague."

He stretched out his arms and rubbed his eyes sleepily.

"Methinks he doth live with her at the house. Our orders, however, are to take the woman first."

The soldier, having loosed his tongue by his many and frequent potations, continued with an air of mysterious secrecy. "I truth, if they attempt to escape they will find that all the roads leading from the village are guarded."

"Hast 'st so?"

La Fabienne's manner betrayed such ill concealed astonishment and agitation that had his companion's senses not been dulled the fact would not have escaped his notice.

"Ay, comrade, by Puritans heavily armed and with orders to take them dead or alive. So, I seen, the poor devil's case hath not much of hope in it."

By the uncertain light of the candle La Fabienne's face looked extremely white. Rising suddenly, he untied the lace bow at his throat.

"Come, let's to bed, good captain. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

"Sleuth, hanging or burning," the other replied carelessly.

"Of a surety the king will interfere. I must rise with thee at the dawn," he cried hoarsely. "Methinks 'twere rare sport to see a witch taken. What punishment is meted out to such?"

the pallet at full length and, throwing an arm up over his head, was soon sleeping soundly.

La Fabienne waited, making sure that the prostrate man was unconscious of all else but his dreams, then threw himself hopelessly into a chair and let the pent up feelings in his heart break through the quiet mask he had worn on his face, and an expression of despair and desperate took its place, while under his breath he cursed himself roundly for his stupid lack of foresight and his contempt for Josiah Taunton's plotting. Springing to his feet, he paced lightly up and down the room like one bereft. Once he paused at the aperture and looked long in the direction of the Mayland farm, the tops of the tall trees in the forest being all that was visible, then strode fiercely across the room again as if unable to contain his emotions. Unlocking a chest that stood in the corner, he removed from it to his person a bag of gold and a brace of pistols, put on his hat and cape and noiselessly buckled on his sword.

"If I allowed her to attempt the forest she would die," he said under his breath, "and if I told her of my intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention she would not let me go alone. Oh, God, 'tis hard!" He shook his head hopelessly.

The candle, now burned down to the edge of the socket, threw weird, smoky rays on La Fabienne's white face as he seated himself, in great perplexity and sore distress, upon the wooden bench.

"Margaret, oh, my love! God help me! There is no other way," he said after a few moments' consideration, when he told her of his intention

In Social Circles

The marriage of Miss Nellie May Post, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Post, to Henry Judson Philbrick, will take place Wednesday evening, June 21 at the bride's home, 90 Thonaston street.

Mrs. Wm. Pease and son Walter, who have been spending the past three months with Mrs. Pease's parents at Eagle Rock, Va., arrived home Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Bird are occupying the E. S. Bird cottage at Mirror Lake.

J. C. Perry attends the commencement exercises of Mt. Holyoke College next week. He has a special interest in this event as a cousin graduate. Miss Malvina Wentworth of this city is also one of the graduates.

Mrs. Emerson Richards and Mrs. George Shuman left Friday night for Orono, Mass., where they were called by the death of their sister, Mrs. Caroline T. Crockett.

Mrs. Philip Howard and son Conrad have returned from an extended visit to Mrs. Howard's former home in Boston.

Mrs. Fred Dean is visiting her former home in Biddeford.

Frank Chapman of Providence has been in the city the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan P. Cobb and daughter Emma are attending commencement at Bradford Academy. Miss Marion N. Cobb is one of the graduates.

Maynard Whitehouse of Boston is visiting his sister, Mrs. Alonzo Davis. Mr. and Mrs. David Talbot have arrived from Omaha, Neb. and are guests at present at W. O. Hevett's.

Letters from E. Osgood Andros indicate that he is now in Oregon on mining business. Mrs. Andros, his wife, has gone to Coronado, Calif., with her mother, to spend the summer.

George F. Crocker is home from Boston on a visit.

Mrs. George H. Tapley of West Brooksville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tapley.

P. J. Good and wife (nee Arlette Smalley) are at Hillside cottage, Battery Beach, for the season. Tobias Smalley and family will spend a portion of the summer there.

The M. F. H. were entertained Thursday evening at the home of Katherine Costello, Pleasant street. Miss Gladys Mitchell was voted in as a new member.

Mrs. Tobias Smalley, Mrs. P. J. Good and Miss Clara Hemmingsway go to Bangor Tuesday morning to attend commencement. Chas. T. Smalley is one of the graduates at the U. of M. Law School.

Mrs. Charles Tolman of Matineus is visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Farrand and Mrs. T. H. Spear are on a fishing trip at Moosehead Lake.

MADDOCKS—WOOSTER.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wooster, Ingraham Hill, Saturday evening, there was a beautiful wedding when their daughter Sadie was united in marriage to Fred Eugene Maddocks of Owl's Head. The bride was beautifully gowned in white and carried a bouquet of white pinks. Miss E. Gertrude Wooster, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Alfred Sherman of Rockland was best man. The bridal party stood under a tastefully arranged arch of evergreens festooned with white lilac blossoms and lilies of the valley, and presented a charming picture, which was witnessed and appreciated by a large circle of relatives and friends. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and a pleasant hour spent after the ceremony, with congratulations and good wishes expressed by those present. Mr. and Mrs. Maddocks are excellent young people and deserving the esteem and regards so beautifully expressed by words and many beautiful and useful presents of flowers and china, linen, chairs and other things of beauty and utility. Dr. A. W. Taylor of Rockland was the officiating clergyman.

If there should be no session of the schools this afternoon the pupils of the High school are requested to assemble tomorrow morning (Wednesday) regardless of any signal.

CARD OF THANKS.

William P. McMillan and relatives wish to thank friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during their recent bereavement.

Dean's Rheumatic Pills entirely cure Rheumatism and Neuritis. Absolutely reliable. 30-cents.

Cures Cuts and Burns
Three Crow Golden Anodyne Liniment.

SEASON OF 1905
J. W. WALKER
PIANO TUNER

Will be in Rockland about JULY 6th, on his annual summer trip, prepared to attend to the wants of his many patrons.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED
SEND ADVANCE ORDERS TO
THE COURIER-GAZETTE
Telephone 370 45

New Ice Cream
Parlors

I have just opened Ice Cream Parlors in connection with my

FRUIT AND CONFECTIONERY BUSINESS

Try my cream once and I guarantee you will again. Agent for

...BAKER'S CHOCOLATES...
They are the Best as You Know

ALLEN
Successor to E. Mont Perry.
Opp. Electric Car Station
ROCKLAND. 461f

FISH DINNERS
and LUNCHES

OAKLAND PARK
FINEST SPOT
On the Maine Coast

F. F. THOMAS, Mgr.
431f

Don't forget the new
CORSET PARLOR
where you can be fitted
to just the right Corset.
Extra large figures our Specialty. Also dainty
models for delicate figures.

See Our "Bust Form Corset."
L. H. McHUGH
375 MAIN, Corner SEA ST., 421f

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES.
Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles.
Buggie's refund money if PIAZO OINTMENT
fails to cure any case, no matter of how long standing, in 6 to 14 days. First application gives ease and rest. See. If your druggist hasn't it
send 50c in stamps and it will be forwarded post paid by Farris Medicine Co., St. Louis, Mo. "T"

Can't be perfect health without pure blood.
Buggie's Blood Purifier makes pure blood. Tones
and invigorates the whole system.

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of
J. C. Watson

"TW LITH NIGHT."

How the Difficult Shakespearean Comedy was Successfully Presented by the Ladies of the Progressive Literary Club.

The members of the Progressive Literary Club, who have made a close and careful study of "Twelfth Night," the past winter, began rehearsals the latter part of March, and presented the first two acts, last Thursday evening, in the Universalist vestry. It was a brilliant event, and was witnessed by many ladies of the most representative families of Rockland. The stage setting was thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the palace and garden scenes were very effective. The costumes were historically correct, excellent judgment was shown in the assignment of the parts, and the skill shown in the portrayal was undoubtedly of local talent. It was a distinct credit to Mrs. Augusta C. Mather, whose careful and persistent training made the performance what it was, a noteworthy event in amateur productions of Shakespeare.

Mrs. G. K. Merrill as Duke Orsino, elegantly costumed in blue velvet and silver, was stately and dignified, enunciating so distinctly that she was at once Sebastian, brother to Viola, and Mrs. Orel Davies, as Antonio, rendered their scene in a most commendable manner. Mrs. E. M. Perry made a very handsome and interesting Sir Captain. Gentlemen attending on the Duke were Valentine, in the person of Mrs. Fred Wright, who wore a beautiful costume of white and gold, and delivered her lines very easily and gracefully; also, Curio, Miss Ernestine Davies, in pink and black costume, who was pleasing to look upon and performed her duties very creditably. Mrs. A. C. Mather as Sir Andrew Aguecheek, looked and acted the part to perfection, and with her blonde wig, high hat, blue suit and "flame colored stocks" was a favorite with the audience. She started to finish, Mrs. E. S. Farwell was in a magnificent costume of black velvet and silver, and though prejudiced from the beginning of the rehearsals against the character, made an ideal Malvolio. The difficult role was rendered in a masterly manner and called forth words of the highest commendation. Mrs. Walter H. Spear, in a pretty fancy costume of pale blue, as Fabian, was cute and cunning.

Mrs. Eugene Bowler as Feste, costumed in red, did some admirable acting. As the singer of songs scattered through the play, which so finely touch its various parts, she was particularly received. She possesses a remarkably sweet voice, a fact that her most intimate friends had been ignorant of, consequently they were very pleasantly surprised. Mrs. E. B. Silsby, costumed in white silk, thread lace and pearls, was strikingly beautiful, and delivered her lines very impressively and effectively. Mrs. C. F. Simmons, in a lovely white costume, made a very charming Viola, entering into the spirit of the part with an abandon unusual in an amateur. Mrs. Jennie Bird as Maria was natural, very pleasing, and perfectly correct in her lines and action. The third scene in Act III, where the clown and the two knights, Sir Toby and Sir Andrew "make the welkin dance," and "rouse the night owl in a cap and gown," was produced with much mirth. In scene IV, Act II, Viola was extremely sweet, doing such artistic work that it is particularly worthy of mention. The longest wait of the curtain was right minutes before scene V, Act II, caused by transforming the palace into the garden scene. Here, in his soliloquy, with the revealing spirits of Orel Davies, and Fabian in the background, dancing so closely as to be able to lay hands on him, Malvolio showed a true conception of the character, and gave an entirely satisfactory delineation.

The club is indebted to Mesdames Oscar Blackington, Orel Davies, Richard Burpee and Walter Hanson, for the elegant costumes prepared for the occasion. Mrs. W. H. Bird, assisted by Mrs. Walter Hanson, had charge of the stage. Miss Anna Coughlin acted as curtain manager and prompter, the latter function, however, proving unnecessary, as the character had her lines "lith" perfect. Mrs. W. H. Bird served very creditably as accompanist. Other members not in the cast, served as ushers and to take the tickets. The Progressive Literary Club was organized in 1885, under the name of Twilight Literary, and its object seems to have been from the beginning, the study of Shakespeare. The constitution was revised March 29, 1902, and one of the changes was to substitute Progressive for Twilight. That it is progressive, Thursday's performance will bear evidence. It was voted to celebrate Sept. 12, 1887.

The officers are: President, Mrs. Fred Burpee; vice president, Miss Anna Coughlin; secretary, Mrs. E. S. Farwell; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Bird; and Mrs. Oscar Blackington, Mrs. Augusta C. Mather, Miss Jennie Blackington, Mrs. E. M. Perry, Mrs. Eugene Bowler, Mrs. C. F. Simmons, Mrs. Richard Burpee, Mrs. E. B. Silsby, Miss Nettie Clark, Mrs. Fred W. Wright, Miss Kitty Coburn, Mrs. Maynard Whitehouse, Mrs. Olive Gilchrist, Mrs. Ernestine Davies, Mrs. Charles E. Littlefield, Mrs. Walter H. Spear, Mrs. G. K. Merrill, Mrs. Orel Davies.

At the close of the evening, the basket of beautiful pinks given by the Shakespeare Society, was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Burpee, together with a vote of thanks from the club, for the many ways in which they helped to make the event a success. To Mrs. A. C. Mather, also, was extended a vote of thanks for a basket of magnificent roses which were distributed as intended, among the cast as souvenirs of the occasion, for her valuable services in planning and procuring stage settings, for making up the entire cast, and for the precious time employed in coaching the different roles.

Mrs. Mather is equally grateful in her appreciation of the cast, without whose faithful and conscientious work she says that the presentation could not have been made a success.

LADIES:

Don't forget the new
CORSET PARLOR
where you can be fitted
to just the right Corset.
Extra large figures our Specialty. Also dainty
models for delicate figures.

See Our "Bust Form Corset."
L. H. McHUGH
375 MAIN, Corner SEA ST., 421f

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES.
Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles.
Buggie's refund money if PIAZO OINTMENT
fails to cure any case, no matter of how long standing, in 6 to 14 days. First application gives ease and rest. See. If your druggist hasn't it
send 50c in stamps and it will be forwarded post
paid by Farris Medicine Co., St. Louis, Mo. "T"

Can't be perfect health without pure blood.
Buggie's Blood Purifier makes pure blood. Tones
and invigorates the whole system.

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of
J. C. Watson

Can't be perfect health without pure blood.
Buggie's Blood Purifier makes pure blood. Tones
and invigorates the whole system.

CLEARANCE SALE

Bankrupt Stock

At store formerly occupied by
E. W. BERRY & CO., Rockland, Me.

Entire Stock to be Sold Regardless of Cost
Unheard-of bargains in every line

Women's Queen Quality Shoes $1.47

Women's Oxfords and Boots, regular $2 and 2.50 goods 97 cents

136 pair Women's Kid Boots, odd lot, regular $2.50, 3.00 and 3.50 goods, now 59 cents

Women's Rubbers 25c.; 7-button Gaiters 10c. Infants' Shoes 10c.

Children's Shoes, tan or black, 47c.; regular price $1.00

Small lot Women's Oxfords 17 cents

STRAW HATS—See the 25c. window --- Stylish Straw Hats to be sold at Half-Price. See our Stiff Hats for 97 cents.

Men's Hose formerly 50c., now 39c. Small lot size 10, reg. price 50c. now 19c.

Men's 50c. Neckwear now 22c.; 25c. Neckwear now 15c.; 50-cent Puff Scarfs now 19c.; 15-cent Bow Ties now 4 for 25c. See our 5-cent Neckwear Counter

Job lot Linen Collars 3 for 5c.; job lot White Shirts 47 cts

Lot Men's Rubbers, 9 and 10, 25 cts

Whittemore Shoe Dressings—Regular 25c. size 15c., 2 for 25c.; reg. 10c. size 5c., 6 for 25c.

SALE IS NOW GOING ON

ARTHUR H. BERRY,

Successor to E. W. Berry & Co.,

ROCKLAND, MAINE

HASKELL—SPEARIN.

Former Rockland rises a Prominent Young Lawyer

At half past seven o'clock Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Josephine Spearin of Harvard street, Auburn, took place the marriage of her daughter, Miss Ethel Mae Spearin to Lewis W. Haskell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Haskell. The bride was given away by her brother, Clifford Spearin, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. O. S. French of Fort Fairfield.

The French was attended by Miss Maude O'Brien of Rockland and the bride's maid, Miss Mary Louise Spearin. The wedding march, Mendelssohn's, was played by Miss Minnie Bailey and as the bridal party entered the handsomely decorated parlor, where the ceremony was performed, the rubens were separated by a niece and nephew of the bride.

Immediately following the marriage a delightful reception was held from 8 to 10 o'clock. In the receiving line with the bride and bridegroom were the bride's mother and the parents of the bridegroom. The bride was charmingly gowned in white laces with white ribbon trimmings and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridegroom wore a suit of blue and carried a white boutonniere.

Evergreen and wild flowers were used for the attractive decorations. In the parlor where the ceremony was performed, the bridal party stood in a row of evergreen from the center of which was suspended a wedding bell of evergreen and lilies of the valley. Guests from out of town were Mrs. S. P. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Spearin, and Miss Florence Clarke, all of Rockland.

The bride is a graduate of the Thomaston high school, class of 1900, and from the Rockland Commercial College. Since her graduation she has been the stenographer in the office of City Solicitor Smith. Mr. Haskell who graduated from E. L. H. S. in '99, now holds an important position with his father, who is of the firm of L. W. Haskell & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Haskell leave Friday morning for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside for the present at the bride's home at 19 Harvard street, Auburn, where they will be at home after July 1.

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of
J. C. Watson

Can't be perfect health without pure blood.
Buggie's Blood Purifier makes pure blood. Tones
and invigorates the whole system.

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of
J. C. Watson

Can't be perfect health without pure blood.
Buggie's Blood Purifier makes pure blood. Tones
and invigorates the whole system.

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of
J. C. Watson

In Boston.

Interesting Items—Personal and Otherwise Cathered for Courier-Gazette Readers.

Boston, June 12, 1905.
Lt. Albert T. Rich, 2d U. S. Inf. and bride have been stopping at Young's. They left Saturday last, en route for Fort Sam Houston, Tex., where Lt. Rich's regiment is stationed, stopping for a day in New York to visit Col. Jeremiah Gilman, an uncle of the groom.

The Knox County Club of Boston is talking of an outdoor gathering to be held the last of the present month. The club was guilty of a similar performance last year, and had so good a time that it is thought wise to repeat it. President S. D. Graves of the club is chief conspirator.

A. H. Bickmore of New York, formerly of Camden, is one of the directors of the Atlantic Shore Line Railway, of which we recently made mention. Mr. Bickmore is a graduate of Colby College, and a classmate of Editor Ogier of the Camden Herald.

Hon. Pearl Wright of New Orleans has been elected Louisiana member of the Republican National Committee. There has been a very bitter contest between the "Lily White" section of the Republican party in the sugar state with the "Black" wing. Although Mr. Wright was regarded as a member of the "Lily White" wing, his selection harmonized the two opposing factions. His name all over Louisiana is synonymous with ability, fair dealing and uprightness.

Miss C. J. Jordan and party will leave June 24 on their European trip. Clyde Fitch is writing a new play for Maxine Elliott.

Friends from Boston enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Walter Carney, formerly of Thomaston, at her summer hotel, the Red Rock House, King's Beach, near Swampscott, Mass. Red Rock House is located on the north shore of Massachusetts, twelve miles from Boston, and has excellent surf bathing. Mrs. Carney managed this house last season very successfully.

Dr. C. C. Whitcomb, formerly of Camden, now a 1st Lt. and Assistant Surgeon, U. S. Army, is stationed at Fort McKinley, Portland Harbor. He plans to visit Camden the first week in July.

Cures Cuts and Burns
Three Crow Golden Anodyne Liniment

IN SPORTING CIRCLES.

Rockland High Loses to Lincoln Academy in a Cleau Game—Other Sports.

There was only a small crowd of spectators on the Broadway ground Saturday afternoon, the public evidently laboring under the impression that Rockland High would have a repetition of its previous snap with Lincoln Academy. This proved a false guess. The visitors put up a first-class game, and hit the ball with a vim that put the High school students to shame. Their game, but an error by Hosmer in the 9th inning was a contributory cause of Rockland's defeat.

The first of the scoring was done in the third inning, when Lincoln Academy made two tallies on hits by Jackson, A. Hall and Castner, and an error by Philbrick. Rockland made one of her scores in this inning also. This feat was performed by Halie Green who knocked the ball out of the lot, for four bags. Philbrick followed him with a good single, and it looked as if Rockland had struck the right path at last. But the Damariscotta pitcher began to show his metal by striking out Mrs. Shall, Palmer and Gay in succession. Thurston's hit netted Lincoln Academy another score in the fifth inning, and Rockland made one, in which Archie Green was the scorer. The springer tapped an easy one in front of the plate and beat out the throw. Pitcher Hall's throw was a wild one and went into right field, giving Green second and third bases. Carlisle sought to head him off at third base and also threw wild, allowing Green to scud to home with all sails set and the flag of victory at the mainmast. This was the only time in the game, however, that the Academy boys had a very bad attack of stage fright. Lincoln Academy made the remainder of her scores in the last inning on singles by Carlisle and Knowlton, a double by Jackson, and an error by Hosmer. Rockland's last score was made in the eighth inning, by Palmer, on an error by Burns, a stolen base and a passed ball. The score in the ninth, but in his over-anxiety failed to hit the ball at all, and the victory was Lincoln Academy's.

For the visitors' spatial mention must be made of D. Hall, the pitcher, who struck out 11 men, and who has exceptionally good speed. Jackson the catcher is a six-footer and the terror of opposing pitchers. Saturday he made four hits, two of which were doubles. Young Clarke the shortstop is another good player, and he ought to be, for he belongs to the family of the "Big" Clarks—all born ball players. With only a few seasons ago that his brother Albert was making home runs galore for the champion Rockland team, while another brother, James, is captain of Bowdoin this season.

A review of Rockland's work in this game does not find overmuch to commend itself. The team is woefully weak at the bat. Only four of eleven hits of the ball safely in this game and half of the six hits were made by Philbrick. If we were allotted the duty of picking out the star of the team this season we should point our finger immediately at Marshall, and say: "Come and get it, belt. This popular young man is covering our center field as it has never been covered by an amateur before and it is a matter of special regret that he does not combine a little better hitting with his good fielding work. The chief enthusiasm over Saturday's game marked his four catches in center field. Hosmer was brought in for second base and will make a good man there another season. The team misses Richardson, its catcher, who is laid off with an injured finger. The score:

LINCOLN ACADEMY.
	AB	R	H	TR	PO	A	E
D. Hall p.	4	0	0	0	0	0	2
Carlisle 1b	4	1	1	1	1	8	0
Jackson c	5	1	4	6	12	1	0
Clark 2b	4	0	1	1	2	1	0
Knowlton 3b	4	0	1	1	0	0	0
Thurston if	5	0	1	1	0	0	0
Burns 2b	4	0	1	1	2	0	0
A. Hall rf	3	1	1	1	2	0	0
Castner cf	4	1	2	3	1	0	0
	37	5	12	15	27	7	5

ROCKLAND HIG.
	AB	R	H	TR	PO	A	E
Philbrick 1b	5	0	3	3	9	0	1
Mosher cf	4	0	1	1	1	4	1
Palmer ss	4	1	0	0	1	4	1
Knowlton 3b	4	0	0	0	3	1	0
Karl c	4	0	0	0	2	0	0
Razie rf	4	0	1	1	4	2	0
Hosmer 2b	4	0	0	0	1	0	0
A. Green if	4	1	0	0	0	1	0
H. Green p	4	1	1	1	4	1	0
	37	3	6	9	27	12	3

SCORE BY INNINGS.
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Lincoln Academy 0 0 2 0 1 0 0 0 2-5
Rockland 1 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 0-1
Two base hits, Jackson 2, Castner 1, Hosmer 1, Green 1, Hall 1, Philbrick 1, Knowlton 1, Thurston 1, Burns 1, Clark 1, A. Hall 1, Carlisle 1, Mosher 1, Palmer 1, Razie 1, Hosmer 1, A. Green 1, H. Green 1.

J. Gus Campbell, the former Rockland polo player, is in Maine again after the close of the season in the Central West and will spend the summer at Trefethens landing, Peaks Island, where he and Mrs. Campbell have moved into the cottage they occupied last year. Mr. Campbell returns to Maine this year, with the championship of his league. He was captain and manager of the Danville 111. team, which he joined last year, and after a hard fight landed it in first place, winning 55 out of 85 games played. The Central League is made up of Indiana teams with the exception of the Danville, who are located within a short distance of the state line. The interest in the games was very intense all over the state and in every town the rivals sometimes would not hold the crowds. The Danville rink accommodates 1,400 people and the last game there were fully 3,000 present although Marion was rather low in the list and had no possible show for the championship. All the teams made money and salaries are holding up well, running from $40 to $80 a week. The people out there are crazy over polo and are willing to pay for the best. Practically all the first class players in the country are in the league and they like the men they are playing for so that there is no probability of any material change next winter. Campbell is going back next fall to the same position he has held for the last two years and hopes to hold the pennant to Danville a second time.

Walter Frost, the new captain of the University of Maine baseball team, arrived home Saturday. He goes this week to Rockville, Conn., where he has signed to pitch this season on a strong independent team. He had been negotiating with Augusta, but before his terms were accepted he received a better offer from Rockville, Conn.

Vinalhaven High plays here next Saturday. The first game was won by the Islanders, and a scrappy contest is looked for.

Sch. Wm. Biesee, Capt. John Bernet, which sailed from Hallowell the 4th inst. with stone for Annapolis, Md., arrived at that port the 9th.

The Courier-Gazette goes into a larger number of families in Knox county than any other paper published.

Rockland High Loses to Lincoln Academy in a Cleau Game—Other Sports.

There was only a small crowd of spectators on the Broadway ground Saturday afternoon, the public evidently laboring under the impression that Rockland High would have a repetition of its previous snap with Lincoln Academy. This proved a false guess. The visitors put up a first-class game, and hit the ball with a vim that put the High school students to shame. Their game, but an error by Hosmer in the 9th inning was a contributory cause of Rockland's defeat.

The first of the scoring was done in the third inning, when Lincoln Academy made two tallies on hits by Jackson, A. Hall and Castner, and an error by Philbrick. Rockland made one of her scores in this inning also. This feat was performed by Halie Green who knocked the ball out of the lot, for four bags. Philbrick followed him with a good single, and it looked as if Rockland had struck the right path at last. But the Damariscotta pitcher began to show his metal by striking out Mrs. Shall, Palmer and Gay in succession. Thurston's hit netted Lincoln Academy another score in the fifth inning, and Rockland made one, in which Archie Green was the scorer. The springer tapped an easy one in front of the plate and beat out the throw. Pitcher Hall's throw was a wild one and went into right field, giving Green second and third bases. Carlisle sought to head him off at third base and also threw wild, allowing Green to scud to home with all sails set and the flag of victory at the mainmast. This was the only time in the game, however, that the Academy boys had a very bad attack of stage fright. Lincoln Academy made the remainder of her scores in the last inning on singles by Carlisle and Knowlton, a double by Jackson, and an

